Great West Milling Company Gives Prizes to Champion Cake and Pie Bakers.

The Canyon News' First Annual Cooking School, conducted by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, nationally known cook, came to a successful close this afternoon with a capacity crowd in attendance at the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Ihrig, who is possessed of an unusually pleasing stage personality, was enthusiastically greeted each day by the women of Canyon and Randall County. She gave practical lectures, devoting considerable time to the planning of balanced menus, the bio-chemistry of foods, and the economies of the kitchen.

Model Equipment

The model kitchen, arranged on the stage at the Legion Hall, was furnished entirely with modern equipment from the Thompson Furniture and Hardware Company as follows: General Electric refrigerator, L. & H. gas range, Hoosier cabinet, Pyrex casseroles, Kitchen Electric "Mix Master," Kitchen Kan and a lovely Congois rug. The Bellah Food Store served as the "official" grocery throughout the school furnishing canned foods and fresh vegetables of all sorts. The Buffalo Meat Market furnished Mrs. Ihrig with fresh and tender meats. Such nationally known products at K. O. Baking Powder and Great West flour were used in preparing many of the dishes.

Mrs. Ihrig wore Nelly Don dresses from McCarty Bros., Inc., and Allen-A hose from the Canyon Supply Company. She used Cara Nome and Elizabeth Arden cosmetics from the City Pharmacy for home beauty treatment and received special treatments from the Terry Beauty Salon.

Prizes Distributed

Scores of daily prizes were distributed by Canyon merchants among the women who attended the school. Valuable articles of clothing, kitchen and chinaware, canned and fresh vegetables and meats were awarded as prizes each day.

Merchants giving daily prizes were: Thompson Hardware Company, Terry Beauty Salon, Buffalo Meat Market, Bellah Food Store, McCarty Bros., Inc., Canyon Flower Shop, and the Warwick Printing Company.

In the big concluding contest to determine the Champion Cake and Pie Baker of the county, Great West Milling Company awarded cash prizes totaling $20 and 168 pounds of Great West flour to the winners.

LAST ISSUE OF THE CANYON DAILY

This will be the last issue of the Daily Canyon News, published for the benefit of the Cooking School.

The News wishes to express great appreciation for the many courtesies extended this week in the publication of the daily newspaper. The advertisers were prompt, and many citizens contributed to the success of the publication in the way of news stories.

Cooking School daily newspapers are usually of only four pages. In five days The News issued three 8 page editions and two four-page editions. Superior equipment and organization made possible this work, together with the regular run of other printing.

Winners of the Canyon News' Cake and Pie Baking Contest, sponsored by the City Federation of Women's Clubs, with prizes given by the Great West Milling Company, were announced at the conclusion of the Cooking School this afternoon. There were 36 entries.

Mrs. Jay Prichard of Canyon won first prize of $10 given by the Great West Mills, with a cocoanut cake.

Second prize of $5 was won by Mrs. F. E. Savage with an angel food cake; third prize, 48 pounds of Great West flour was won by Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty, chocolate layer; fourth prize, 24 pounds of Great West flour was won by Mrs. Ida Lowes, white layer; and fifth prize, 12 pounds of Great West flour was won by Mrs. Emerson E. Owen with a Great West cake.

First prize of $5 in the pie contest went to Mrs. Mark L. Foster who won with a pecan pie.

Second prize of 48 pounds of Great West flour went to Mrs. Jay Prichard, chiffon lemon; third prize of 24 pounds of Great West flour, Mrs. A. A. Kirkpatrick, lemon; fourth prize, 12 pounds of Great West flour to Mrs. C. M. Dowlen, lemon.

In her lecture today, Mrs. Ihrig answered many questions and prepared those dishes requested by members of the audience.

"The Hollywood Reducing Diet has cost more lives, and ruined the health of more people than the World War," Mrs. Ihrig declared in her discussion of a safe reducing diet. "Reducing is a serious business and should not be carried on to any great extent without the advice of a physician. Careful selection of the foods eaten, and knowledge of the fat producing elements, and their elimination from the diet, is far more effective in cutting down excess poundage than a drastic starvation diet."

Santa Fe Asks for Water Service

Santa Fe officials have been in conference with the City Commission relative to furnishing water to the railroad at the local station.

A number of the officials were in Canyon attending the meeting of the commission, and informal discussions of the proposal, together with suggested rates were entered into.

The city commission will make the railroad no better rate than would be made for any other concern, and the question confronting the commission now is to how low the rate may be placed considering the large amount of water proposed to be used, and the fact that there would be no loss on the lines of the city.

The present city's rate is 25c per thousand when 100,000 gallons are used monthly. The railroad proposed a minimum of $25 per month payment. Up to 200,000 gallons per month the rate is 20c per thousand. The Santa Fe has asked for a rate of 14c, if water is used to the amount of 1,000,000 gallons. This proposal is now being considered by the City Commission, but no decision has been reached.

MRS. IHRIG'S RECIPES

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig Thursday afternoon presented the following tested recipes to women who attended the News' cooking school at the American Legion Hall.

Cherry Cake

Blend 2 egg yolks with 2 tbsp. sugar; 2 tbsp. shortening; with 2 tbsp. sugar; 1 1-2 cup Great West flour; 1 1-2 cup K. C. Baking Powder; 1-2 tsp. salt; 3-8 cup alternate with red cherry juice, boil to a thread 1-2 cup syrup. Pour slowly over beaten whites of 2 eggs.

Fold in and out. Pour about half the mixture into a ring mold. Add red cherries, and then the remainder of the batter.

Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour in the ring mold or for 30 minutes in muffin pans. Serve with cherry sauce.

Cherry Sauce

Boil ten minutes 1 cup syrup, 1-3 cup cherry juice, 1-2 cup chopped cherries, 1 tsp. lemon juice, 1 tsp. shortening.

If sauce is not thick enough add 2 tbsp. of Great West flour well mixed with cherry juice or water.

Coffee Marlow

Melt 24 marshmallows in 1 cup of strong coffee. When the mixture begins to set, fold in 1-2 pint whipped cream, 1-2 cup cut marischino cherries red and green. Pour into freezing tray and freeze in General Electric for several hours.

Pie Crust
3 cups Great West flour, 1 cup shortening; 1 tsp. salt; 1-2 cup K. C. Baking Powder.

Ice water to mix into a ball until dough leaves the side of the pan.

Roll, spread lightly with shortening; fold in thirds and roll again if flaky crust is desired.

Dream Pie

1-4 cup sugar, 1 pkg. orange jello, 1-2 cup boiling water, 3-4 cup orange juice, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 cup orange sections, whipped cream.

Pour 1-2 cup sugar over the orange sections and let set for 15 minutes. When mixture of jello and orange juice begins to congeal save out 1-4 cup to add to the whipped cream.

Spread a thin covering of whipped cream over the pastry shell, arrange orange sections, and pour over part of the congealed juice. Place in General Electric and let set. Pour on the remainder of the orange juice jello, and cover with whipped cream. Chill in General Electric until served.

Following are the recipes offered today:

Brown Muffins

4 tbsp. shortening, 1-3 cup syrup, 1 egg, 2-3 cup milk, 2 cups Great West flour, 1 cup bran, 3 tsp. K. C. Baking Powder, 1 tsp. salt.

Fill muffin pan half full. Lay slice of melba peach on top of each muffin. Bake in L. & H. oven 20 to 25 minutes at 425 degrees.

Broiled Liver with Banana Birds

Pour lemon juice over banana; wrap thinly sliced bacon around the banana spirallywise and fasten with a toothpick.

Cut liver about 3-4 inch thick and trim edges; broil lightly with bananas. Add a bit of shortening to the juice in the pan, season with salt, tabasco, paprika, and pepper, and pour over the liver.

Seafood Salad

Mix well 2 cups seafood, 1 cup sliced celery, 4 hardboiled eggs chopped. Serve with Ravigote.

Ravigote Dressing

Mash 2 egg yolks, 2 tbsp. salad oil, 2 tsp. cream, 1 1-2 tsp. vinegar, 1-2 tsp. salt, 1 drop tabasco.

Mixed Grill

A T-bone steak, four lamb chops, four pork chops, a few frankfurters, and several tomatoes cut in half moons are placed on the broiler pan. This is placed near the flame until seared on one side. Turn and cook about 10 minutes. The heat should be reduced if medium or well done steak is preferred. Turn again and cook side seared first. Salt to taste, remove to platter and decorate with parsley, beets, potatoes or lemon. Pour meat juices over all.

HOW TO END THE DEPRESSION

The personal one, we mean; for if we end the personal depression there won't be any other kind. Here is the good medicine:—

1. The chances were even that you would be born a girl. You won.

2. The chances were against you living to be 21. You won.

3. The chances that you would be born a boy and live to be 21, were 1 in 4. You won.

4. The chances that you would be born somewhere else than in the United States were roughly 15 to 1. You won.

5. The chances that you would be born an American, a boy and live to be 21, were, therefore, only 1 in 60. You won.

6. Out of the twelve depressions this country has suffered in 75 years, you escaped all but one or two (consult your age).

7. The pain and suffering of this one you have escaped entirely or 90 per cent, we'll say.

8. You learned more lessons in the last two years than you learned in 12 or 16 years at school; and you learned them not too late.

9. Prices in securities, real estate, possessions generally, are down; even John D. Rockefeller is worth half what he was worth in August, 1929. Good levels will return, for him and for you.

10. So, having won practically every chance the world gives its children, just conquer the present indisposition by simple diet, sunlight, kindness to other people, and as much mental composure as you can manage.

Out of every depression we ever had, came a boom—The Paper Salesman.

POPULAR TOWN NAMES

If someone were to ask you what is the most popular name for towns in the United States, what would you guess? Unless you had checked up the names in the United States Postal Guide, it is safe to say that you would not hit upon the right name in a dozen guesses.

Of course, Washington would suggest itself, also Springfield, possibly Paris. But neither of them is the leader, although Washington stands in the second rank.

The most popular town name in the United States is Clinton, of which there are 30 having post offices.

Next comes Chester, Florence, and Washington with 28 towns of each name; then Clayton, Madison, Marion and Troy, 27; Glenwood, Kingsport, Newport and Salem, 26; Ashland and Centerville, 25.

There are 24 Cleverlands and the same number of Springfields, several of them being important cities. Other names range from this number downward. There is only one New York, but two Chicagos, six Philadelphias and eight Detroits.

The outstanding popularity of the name Clinton is somewhat difficult to understand, although two statesmen of that name were very prominent in the early days of the republic.

George Clinton was the first governor of the State of New York and was vice-president of the United States at the time of his death in 1812. His nephew, DeWitt Clinton, was also governor of New York and an unsuccessful candidate for the presidency, being defeated by Madison.

Whether it be through the fame of these statesmen or the euphony of the name itself, Clinton is the favorite name for towns in the United States.

TEN COMMANDMENTS THAT LEAD TO SUCCESS

1. Cultivate the habit of persistence which is the most necessary element to success.

2. Make up your mind to do the things you dream of doing.

3. Plan the first step to be taken. And begin.

4. Perform one hard task each day.

5. Believe in yourself, believe in the thing you mean to do, and be proud of it.

6. Do not be turned from your purpose by your failures nor expect too much at first. Achievement is not a swift ride in an elevator; it's a hot, hard climb up a long, steep hill.

7. School yourself to disregard discouragements, and opposition, and to get along, if need be, without praise or approval.

8. Do not interfere with others nor try to direct their lives. You'll find it all you can do to make a success of your own.

9. Cut the ill humors from your disposition, and disabuse your mind of the thought that you are being slighted or overlooked.

10. Finally be of cheerful countenance. More battles have been lost by frowns—more successes are won by narrow margin of a smile—than this old world dreams of.

CHASING THE RAINBOW.

The world hears a great deal of the few who make good in New York City. Of the fate of the rest not so much is heard or said unless a body is found in a gas-filled attic room or floating in the river.

In the course of a year thousands of young folk leave their homes in the country or some smaller city to seek fame, fortune and excitement in the metropolis for less than $25 a week. Those who fail to land jobs paying as much as this soon find themselves in an environment so depressing and demoralizing as to permanently affect their lives and character.

New York has more inhabitants than it can house, feed and transport. Except for the relatively few who hit the stars, it is no longer the city of opportunity. New York is now big enough to say that of itself.

Aspiring youth should choose some other place in which to go broke. There is no place where the "broke" person is so dead broke as in a great city.

Success comes hardest in a large city, but the greatest successes are won there. So hopeful and adventurous youth will continue leaping into this bruising and breaking maelstrom. They are willing to take the desperate chance. Fortune smiles more frequently today upon the youth who hunts success in the smaller, rapidly growing cities.

FIGHTING THE FIRE RATE.

The National Association of Credit men has announced the initiation of a continuous fire prevention program for 1932.

"Unrelenting vigilance" is the keynote and the Association's fire prevention Committees in 137 cities are the nucleus of the drive. The goal is to cut the annual fire waste in half. The announcement says: "A saving of $250,000,000 through elimination of half of our annual fire waste means a gain of close to a billion dollars for American business. When dollars and commodities are tied up thru fire catastrophes they cannot work."

The Association deserves national applause for its stand and it is to be hoped that its example will be followed by other organizations. The war against fire must be carried on without deviation. Sporadic, temporary campaigns can do no good. It is a war that is being fought in the interest of every citizen, whether or not he is a property owner, and every citizen owes his assistance.

There is nothing mysterious about fire prevention. Its fundamental tenet is common sense. Carelessness and ignorance have allowed annual fire losses to exceed one-half billion dollars. Knowledge and vigilance can bring this down.

JUST A MESS OF CONTACTS.

We arise in the morning, contact a cake of soap briefly, a shaving brush more extensively. We contact a pair of eggs, a street-car conductor, and finally the office. There is an unpleasant contact with a bill collector. He says he must contact some money. Later, perhaps, we contact a customer or two. When the shades of night have contacted the earth, we contact dinner, and pass the evening contacting poor bridge hands.

And so to bed.

Our fathers had all these experiences, but they didn't know how to describe them.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

MOTHER KNOWS

Mother: "That merely shows, my dear child, that you are not asking enough."—L'Illustration (Paris).

The fellow who opposes a public improvement is often among the first to compliment it when he finds it is popular.

GIVE HER A TIN MEDAL

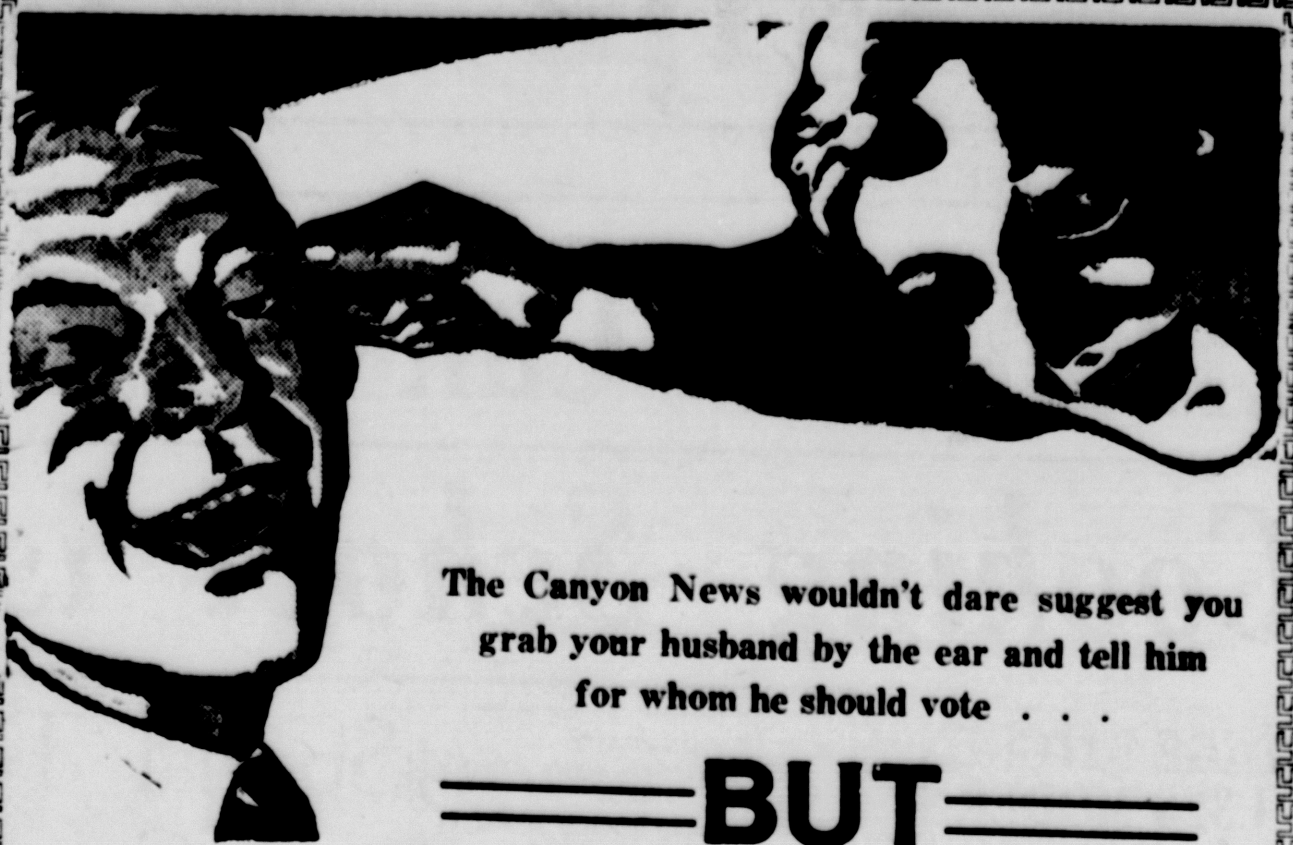

"Svensson is so conceited."

"Yes, on his last birthday he sent a telegram of congratulation to his mother!"—Allt for Alla.

A Pittsburg biologist relates a harrowing experience in Venezuela when he was besieged until dawn by boars. If that had been "bores," we could recite a few of our own.

Man who shot his wife claims he mistook her for a burglar. A lesson for women who go through their husband's pockets.

An inferiority complex is what causes a fellow to throw down the best hand in a poker game.

The Canyon News wouldn't dare suggest you grab your husband by the ear and tell him for whom he should vote . . .

BUT

consider these candidates for office and here's why:

In bringing to Canyon Mrs. Leona Rusk Irig, nationally known Culinary Expert, for The News Free Cooking School, the newspaper underwrote all expenses—a considerable sum—in the belief that the Cooking School would be worth many times its cost. Undoubtedly it is, but some one has to foot the bills.

These Candidates for elective office believe the Cooking School is a wonderful help to the people of Canyon and Randall County. They are defraying a part of the expenses of the School and urge their friends and the public in general to attend every session. They are glad of the opportunity to help make possible this community event.

The following conversation, overheard at a bridge tea not long ago, gives some idea of the reception accorded the new gas range on display at the dealer's store.

Mrs. E: Did I tell you I bought one of those new Gas Ranges?

Mrs. C: No, really? How do you like it?

Mrs. K: I bid one club.

Mrs. E: I'm crazy about it. It's so small and compact. Honestly, I . . .

Mrs. J: Isn't it your bid?

Mrs. E: Oh . . . sorry . . . one diamond!

Mrs. C: How is the oven?

Mrs. E: Works like a charm! It's insulated, you know, and has one of those new heat regulators.

Mrs. C: I'm going to see if Fred won't get me one. Oh, whose bid is it?

Mrs. J: YOURS!

Mrs. C: Mine? Oh, Yes . . . well . . . a . . . two hearts!

Insurance Guests Visited at Park and the Museum

Four automobiles of visiting ladies of the Texas Insurance Association convention in Amarillo drove out to the Palo Duro Park this morning. The visitors were met in Canyon and escorted to the Park by Ray V. Davis, custodian of the park, J. B. Elliston and Fred E. Wortham, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Following the visit to the Palo Duro Canyon the ladies drove back to the college and spent considerable time in visiting in the museum. Prof. L. P. Sheffy discussed in full the various points of interest regarding the work of the historical society.

Thirty-nine Years Old, "Rabbit" Maranville, Who Forsook Habits of His Hey-Hey Heyday to Stage Comeback Five Years Ago, Sets Pace for the Young 'Uns

BY PHILIP MARTIN

DEFYING laws of old age and physical disintegration, a little, wrinkled old man hops around between first and second base for the Boston Braves and sets the pace for his "kid" teammates in the Braves' vigorous scrap for the 1932 pennant.

The oldest is Walter James Vincent (Rabbit) Maranville, 39-year-old clowning shortstop, now become a second baseman, and one of baseball's most colorful figures since he made his first famous "basket" catch with New Bedford of the New England League in 1911.

Always one overwilling to bend the festive elbow, Rabbit found himself headed for the scrapheap five years ago. He had been sent to Rochester in the minors, after 15 years in the big time. Instead of doing the expected and gradually dropping out of sight, the Rabbit, amazingly, reversed his field. Spurning the flowing bowl, Maranville really began to do his stuff. He played as he never had before.

As a result, he went to the Cardinals and just about won the 1928 pennant for Sam Breadon, his defensive play being a bright spot in the play series of that year. Then the Braves obtained him on waivers from the Cardinals. In 1929 he batted .286 for 146 games, and was second in fielding only to Travis Jackson of the Giants. And since then he's been going great guns.

An idea of how this Fanny Ward of the diamond is stepping along is shown by the fact that Bill McKechnie started this season with Rabbit at short, instead of Bill Urbanski, the International League product who cost the Braves $40,000.

WHEN a player around the 40-year mark holds his own with the youth of the game, he is regarded as somewhat of a superman. An explanation of Maran-

Still another thing the matter with the world is too many women mistake a marriage certificate for a lecture license.

We overheard a motorist confess yesterday that he is so poor now he can hardly keep body and chassis together.

Do your shopping in Canyon.

ville's remarkable record, perhaps, is his unusual muscular and glandular system. He is cleanly-muscled and never takes on weight. Five feet 5 inches tall, the Rabbit's weight always hovers between 150 and 155 pounds.

A splendid sinew system gives him great stamina, and limits strained ligaments, pulled tendons and torn muscles to an absolute minimum.

Another theory might be the fact that to him the game has been just that. He has never been one to take his profession over-seriously. Thousands of stories are told of his droll antics on and off the field. A natural comedian, his good-natured clowning has placed him in a class as pub-

STRICTLY COMMERCIAL.

When Mr. Shakespeare found his stuff

Was getting too refined
He went to work and wrote the rough

And more exciting kind.
He put in poison, spears and swords
Staged fierce and gory fights.

And then his dramas held the boards,
Sometimes a hundred nights.

Anon there dawned another day—
A time when every scene
In every profitable play
Was gentle and serene.
Eschewed was very vulgar speech
As well as cards and dice.
Each leading lady was a peach,
The heroes all were nice.

But soon the public weary grew
Of heroes staid and grave
And heroines who always knew
How ladies should behave.
The folks who wanted to be thrilled
Remained to boo and scoff;
The theatres were sparsely filled
And box receipts fell off.

And so the drama of the time
Is usually a flop
Unless it reeks in savage crime
Until the final drop
The Bard who dwelt in Avon's wave
Knew what the stage was made for,
And that is why he always gave
The public what it paid for.

NEW GOVERNMENT TAX RATES INCREASE COST TO AVERAGE CITIZEN BY $235 ANNUALLY

WASHINGTON, June 9.—If you are a married business man with one child and a net income of $6,000, the new federal taxes will cost you something like $235 a year.

That sum is arrived at on the basis of figures used by members of the House and Senate when the new rates were before Congress taking $6,000 as a starting point, so as to allow a man enough money to buy some of the taxed luxuries.

If you are that $6,000 man, your exemptions will be $2,900 including $400 for your son or daughter. The income tax on the remaining $3,100 will be $125 against the old levy of $23.63.

Tax on Auto and Extras.

The automobile you buy that the manufacturer sells for $600 will cost you $18 in taxes. Unless the car comes fully equipped, you'll probably buy a couple of bumpers and a spare tire costing $30, on which you will be taxed 60 cents.

You'll use, say, 700 gallons of gasoline a year, if you take any trips, on which you'll pay $7. If you use 30 gallons of lubricating oil, you'll give another $1.20 to the treasury. Your tires and tubes will cost about $1 a year in taxes.

High Taxes on Luxuries

If your wife gets a $200 fur coat, that's another $20 tax. Should you by chance indulge in beer making, using brewer's wort, the national treasury collects another $3.

Then your wife's perfumes, cold creams, powder, rouge and what not will cost another $3 in taxes, and if you buy her a $50 watch the government gets $5 more.

When your radio gets fuzzy and you buy a new one for $75 your tax is $3.75, and if you put in an electrical refrigerator that the manufacturer sells for $100 you are out an additional $5 in taxes.

If you play golf and your wife and child take part in any sports, $50 a year isn't too much to expect to spend on sporting equipment. The tax on this is $5.

Hunting Trip Costs

When you make the annual hunting trip—even though you use your old gun—and spend $10 for shells you give the government $1 more in taxes.

For your vacation trip you buy a $15 camera and pay a $1.50 tax; you'll use enough matches if you are a smoker, to pay $1 a year tax.

If there should be a sweet tooth in the family, and you buy $50 worth of candy a year, that tax will amount $1. When a few soft drinks are thrown in, another $1 goes to the treasury.

Suppose your electric light bill, including the power for your new electric refrigerator, is $5 a month, then your annual tax is $1.80.

Postage Goes Up

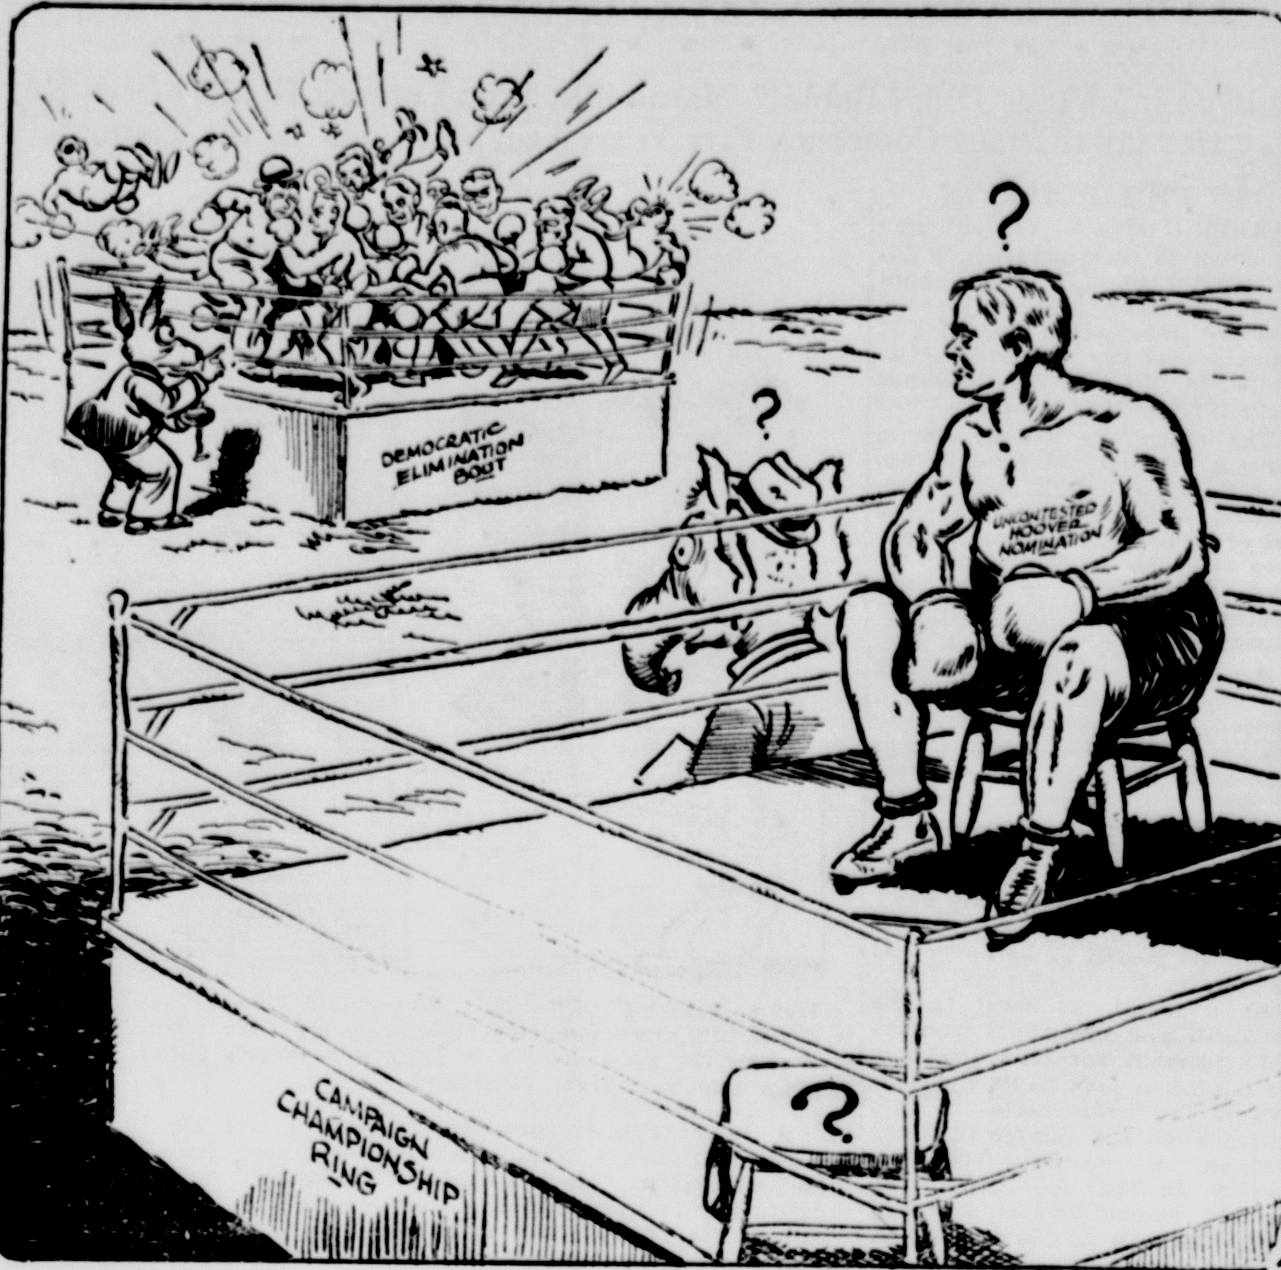

When you use the telephone and telegraph in your business at varying taxes, it won't be much trouble for you to roll up a $10 annual tax bill on those.

If you and your family write an average of seven letters a day, the increase in postage from 2c to 3c will cost you $75 instead of $50.

If you average $2 a week for movies and shows, you'll donate $10 to the treasury and if you write only two checks a day the 2c tax will cost more than $12.

"It's perfectly gorgeous," is the way in which Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig described the Palo Duro Canyon when she visited the Palo Duro Free Park east of town late Thursday. This was Mrs. Ihrig's first time to view any portion of the Palo Duro.

"I couldn't imagine a thing such as this right at your very door. I thought of the Palo Duro Canyon as being some small something and had no idea it was such an immense place," said she.

Mrs. Ihrig was carried to the park as a special guest of the Chamber of Commerce. In the party making the trip with Mrs. Ihrig after the close of the Thursday session of the cooking school were: Mrs. Ray V. Davis, Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty, Fred E. Wortham and Byrle Elliston.

Mrs. Ihrig also visited the museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society early this morning. She declared that the large collection of relics now on display are indeed amazing. She sees no good reason why the people of the Panhandle should not rally to the support of the society and erect the museum building.

"I shall go away from Canyon spreading the good word regarding the beautiful canyon, which is too beautiful to express in words. And I shall tell them about the wonderful collection in the museum," she announced.

The conductor rang up the fare. "You don't know how we've missed you," he said. —New York Morning Telegraph.
